

GRADUATE LEADERSHIP PROGRAMS

EXCELLENCE IN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

THE CLASSICAL APPROACH

GORDON
COLLEGE

Establish a leadership philosophy rooted in faith and characterized by integrity, discernment and effectiveness.

Gordon's Master of Arts in Leadership degree equips rising classical Christian leaders for excellence in administrative leadership.

- » Designed by leading classical educators
- » Taught and mentored by Christian school leaders
- » Focused on leadership development
- » Exposure to advanced scholarship
- » Opportunities for networking and publishing

Courses designed specifically to develop current and aspiring leaders for classical Christian schools.

CORE COURSES

The Classical Approach to Leadership

Leadership Theories and Practices:
Historical and Philosophical
Understanding of Leadership

Academic Leadership: Philosophy,
Pedagogy and Practice

Developing, Leading and Managing People

Capstone Thesis

APPLIED COURSES

Campus Design and Development

Business, Finance and Operations

Private School Law and Governance:
A Classical Understanding

Institutional Advancement:
Patron Cultivation

A WORKABLE SCHEDULE

Designed with working professionals in mind, the graduate leadership program features a virtual classroom environment during the academic year, residencies on Gordon's campus in Wenham, MA, and Orvieto, Italy, during summer breaks, and an on-site practicum.

ORVIETO RESIDENCY

Immerse yourself in a medieval Italian city where fragments of the West's classical Christian civilization invite us to reflect on our current practices.

ON-SITE PRACTICUM

Participate on-site at a leading classical Christian school where you can see an effective administration in action and identify indicators of success.

GORDON RESIDENCY

Engage with a community of committed Christian learners on Gordon's main campus, located just north of Boston, the global hub of higher education.

TWO YEARS, 30 GRADUATE CREDITS

“Cultivating the next generation of classical school leaders is a great need as classical, liberal arts education expands around the U.S. and the world. The M.A. in Leadership for Classical Schools at Gordon College will help meet this critical need and advance the renewal.”

Christopher Perrin

CEO, CLASSICAL ACADEMIC PRESS

LEARN MORE

www.gordon.edu/graduate/leadership

770 639 3509 | david.tilley@gordon.edu

